Course Description

The focus of this seminar is to provide law enforcement personnel with specialized interview and interrogation training that will significantly help develop the knowledge and skill level needed to effectively and professionally conduct interviews and interrogations with today's most experienced criminals. Each specific module has been designed for every participant to focus on self-evaluation and address their own strong and weak points as they prepare to become professional interviewers in today's demanding times.

Course Objectives

This 3-day seminar has been created by lead instructor and interviewing expert Detective Dom Cappelluti. It was created to specifically prepare today's detectives, investigators, agents, supervisors, gang and drug officers, and uniformed patrol officers to become effective interviewers when conducting criminal investigations and other professional duties as directed by their respective agencies.

Instructor(s)

Dom Cappelluti is a veteran detective with a large (Illinois) police department and a former group supervisor of a multi-jurisdictional homicide task force. With over 27 years of experience Dom has specialized in high profile violent street crimes, gang homicides, murder for hire cases on gang and narcotic officers and officer involved shootings. Dom has worked interview rooms and conducted thousands of interviews and interrogations as a senior detective.
